This Valentine's season, show some love where it truly matters by putting your HEART into rural healthcare. Did you know your Georgia state income taxes can help provide essential care to rural communities, including those served by Elbert Memorial Hospital? Through the Georgia HEART Hospital Program, you can Help Enhance Access to Rural Treatment by directing your state tax dollars to support our hospital's mission.

Give from the HEART: How Your Tax Dollars Make an Impact

Georgia is the only state that empowers its residents to transform tax payments into direct support for rural healthcare. Contributions through the HEART program have significantly strengthened our ability to deliver critical services, ensuring high-quality care remains available to those who need it most. Your participation helps us build a healthier, stronger Georgia.

Through HEART, all Georgia taxpayers have the chance to choose where their tax dollars go, with 100% of the contribution qualifying as a state income tax credit, up to these limits (January 1 to June 30):

- Individual Filer: up to $5,000
- Married Filing Separately: up to $5,000
- Married Filing Jointly: up to $10,000
