Georgia Hospital Association Welcomes City of Hope® Cancer Center Atlanta as Newest Member

ATLANTA – City of Hope® Cancer Center Atlanta has joined the Georgia Hospital Association (GHA) as its newest hospital member. City of Hope® Atlanta, part of the world-renowned City of Hope® National Comprehensive Care Network, provides access to leading-edge care, groundbreaking clinical trials, and multidisciplinary specialists to patients in Georgia and the Southeast.

The largest hospital trade association in Georgia, GHA serves nearly 150 hospital members and is pleased to welcome City of Hope® Atlanta into the supportive network of GHA membership. City of Hope® Atlanta will gain GHA’s support and advocacy efforts on important state and federal policy initiatives affecting health care, among other membership benefits.

“City of Hope® Atlanta is well known for its cutting-edge cancer and diabetes research and superior survival outcomes,” said GHA President and CEO Caylee Noggle. “Their work and efforts perfectly align with GHA’s mission to advance health care priorities that serve the best interest of Georgia’s hospitals and the communities and patients they serve. We are proud to grow our membership with this remarkable organization.”

City of Hope® was founded in 1913 and has grown into one of the largest cancer and diabetes research and treatment organizations in the U.S. Its national system includes cancer treatment centers and outpatient facilities in Atlanta, Chicago, and Phoenix areas, in addition to a Los Angeles campus, clinical care locations across Southern California, and a cancer center in Orange County, California.

About GHA

Founded in 1929, GHA serves nearly 150 hospitals in Georgia and promotes the health and welfare of the public through the development of better hospital care for all Georgia’s citizens. The mission of GHA is to advance the health of individuals and communities by serving as the leading advocate for all Georgia hospitals and health care systems. GHA represents its members before the General Assembly and Congress, as well as state and federal regulatory agencies, and is an allied member of the American Hospital Association.
