Dublin VA and Macon Vet Center to host Military-to-VA transition event in Albany July 11

DUBLIN, Ga. – The Carl Vinson VA Medical Center Military-to-VA (M2VA) Transition Program and Macon Vet Center will host a resource fair July 11 from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. at American Legion Post 512 in Albany, Georgia. The event is intended to educate veterans and the public about effectively helping veterans with their transition from active military service to receiving healthcare at the VA.

Themed “Bridging the Gaps to VA Healthcare,” the fair will include information about VA healthcare and community resources. Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) staff will be on-hand to accept veterans’ claims for benefits, including claims for the 2022 PACT Act covering toxic exposures. Refreshments will also be available.

The VA is being hosted by American Legion Post 512 located at 815 Willie Pitts Rd., Albany, Georgia 31707.

For more information about the event or resources for transitioning military staff, contact Michael Mallory, Transition Patient Advocate, at Michael.Mallory@va.gov or 478-272-1210 ext. 44124.

Anyone interested in more about this and other events at the medical center are encouraged to visit Facebook at “Dublin VA Medical Center.”
