Mountain Lakes Medical Center Chief Business Development Officer to Retire

Mountain Lakes Medical Center is both proud and a bit saddened to announce the retirement of our very own Kimberly S. Ingram, RN, MSN, Chief Business Development Officer.

Ms. Ingram has been an invaluable leader on our team, bringing her expertise, warmth, and dedication over the years. She has consistently been a source of support and inspiration for patients, families, and colleagues alike, always upholding the highest standards of care and professionalism.

Please join us in congratulating Kimberly S. Ingram on her retirement as she begins her next chapter - spending cherished moments with her grandchildren.
